Dear Mr. Shepherd,

To a large degree what you say you would like to do was done several years ago in the excellent documentary, Reasonable Doubt, by Gerard ~~St~~ Selby. It is in the stores and it is far and away the best thing done. All the others have flaws of various kinds that the average person is not in a position to perceive. Most of the book will lead you astray.

Of the sources of pictures other than the TV nets and the picture agencies perhaps the best is the Assassination Archive and Research Center, 908 F St., NW #510. A fellow named Gordon at the ^{of the AAR} Univ. at I think Springfield, AARC can give you his address. You have to buy the rights to use Zapruder. Again AARC can tell you how. But I wonder if you know enough about the fact, the established official fact, for your project? You cannot get it from most books and what you do get from them is usually not fact.

The best source of what was not properly revealed to the public is my books, list enclosed. Two more should appear this year, those in the stores.

Good luck with your project.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
